FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PLANS FOR MOVIN' ON 2021 FESTIVAL

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa., April 6- Movin' On, Penn State's Annual Music Festival, is transitioning to a virtual setting for the spring semester of 2021. This decision was made due to concern for the health and well-being of Penn State students, faculty and the community. This effort is put in place to accommodate the CDC's recommendations to avoid large social gatherings and prevent the spread of the coronavirus.

The Movin' On Music Festival Team is working hard to create an exceptional online experience for the student population. The line up will consist of one headliner, one act donated by the Student Programming Association, and a student act. The event will take place on Friday, April 30 and will be streamed through Zoom and WPSU. The time of the event will be announced at a later date.

Leading up to the event, Movin' On plans to continue to host virtual events for their other programming like Battle and Spotlight. Battle will be live-streamed on April 15. The winner of Battle will open for the national acts at our annual festival.
