

Movin' On Music Festival
220 HUB-Robeson Center
University Park, 16802

Writer: Bailey Straub
Public Relations Coordinator
Movin' On 2023

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOVIN' ON'S BATTLE APPLICATIONS TO OPEN JANUARY 18

University Park, PA. Jan.18 - Movin' On, Penn State University's annual student-run music festival opens its Battle applications on Wednesday, January 18. Battle, formally known as Battle of the Bands, is a competition between Penn State bands or performers to showcase their unique musical talents. The winner of Battle will open for Movin' On 2023. Applications will remain open until Wednesday, February 1.

Eight performers/groups will be selected to perform at Battle to compete for the opening spot at Movin' On 2023 on April 28 at the IM Fields. Only one member of a band must be a student at Penn State. Previous Battle winners had the opportunity to perform for the Penn State community as well as alongside notable acts, such as Jack Harlow, Amine, Wiz Khalifa, Judah & The Lion, Fall Out Boy, and more.

Penn State Movin' On is one of the top five student-run music festivals in the country. The 18+ music festival is free for any Penn State student. The festival is aimed to be a final farewell for all graduating students moving on from Penn State. The lineup has yet to be released, but details are coming soon.

For more information about Movin' On, please visit our website www.movinon.org. Movin' On can also be found on Instagram, Twitter, and Tiktok @psumovinon.