

Movin' On Music Festival
220 HUB-Robeson Center
University Park, 16802

Writer: Nicole Oronzio
Director of Public Relations
Movin' On 2023

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOVIN' ON 2023 MUSIC FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES LINEUP

University Park, PA. April 12 - Movin' On, Penn State's student-run music festival, presents a full line-up for its annual festival at the IM Fields on April 28. The lineup includes headliner JID followed by COIN and Neon Trees as well as UPSAHL, the Student Programming Association's (SPA) sponsored act, and Mellow Honey, Movin' On 2023 Battle winner. Movin' On is funded by the Penn State student activity fee with the help from the University Park Allocation Committee (UPAC).

Taking the stage first will be the Battle winner, Mellow Honey, with its psychedelic rock and indie tunes. After Mellow Honey's performance, UPSAHL, presented by SPA, will take the stage. Taylor Upsahl is an alternative and indie artist who released her first studio album "Lady Jesus" in 2021. UPSAHL has released numerous singles and her most notable single is titled "People I Don't Like." UPSAHL's up-and-coming energy mixed with her upbeat and mellow tracks will surely excite all attendees for the rest of Movin' On 2023.

Following these acts, Neon Trees will debut at Movin' On 2023. The alternative band was propelled into the spotlight when its first single "Animal" soared to No. 13 on the Billboard Hot 100 and won the "Top Alternative Song" at the Billboard Music Awards. In 2012, the quadruple-platinum song "Everybody Talks," which has over 650 million streams on Spotify, rose to No. 6 on Billboard Hot 100. After years of success and countless sold out shows, Neon Trees took a break in 2015. In 2019, the group reawakened with a newfound boldness and passion with their single "Used to Like." Neon Trees will certainly bring the groovy rock energy that many Penn Staters grew up listening to while setting the tone for the rest of Movin' On 2023.

Just in time for sunset, Movin' On 2023 will continue with COIN. In 2012, the pop rock band started in Nashville, Tennessee with free shows and a loyal following. COIN rose to stardom after their single "Talk Too Much" charted on Billboard's Alternative Songs chart. Recently, COIN acquired their first No. 1 slot on Billboard's Adult Alternative Airplay chart for the song "Chapstick." After many tours and album releases, COIN provides meaningful lyricism and catchy beats. The melodic indie pop/rock band will set the perfect mood as the sun sets over the IM Fields and brings the upbeat energy to Penn State.

Nimble, head-nodding lyricism and lightning fast flows by J.I.D will cap off the night at Movin' On 2023. J.I.D broke into the rap scene after signing with Dreamville

Records and releasing his debut album “The Never Story” in 2017. The Grammy nominated, East Atlanta native furthered his success through contributing to Dreamville’s compilation “Revenge of the Dreamers III.” This platinum certified album earned the No. 1 slot on Billboard’s Top 200 chart and secured numerous Grammy nominations, including “Best Rap Album” and “Best Rap Performances.” In 2022, J.I.D released his third studio album “The Forever Story.” He toured the album on his sold out “Luv Is 4Ever” tour while topping countless “Best of 2022” lists, which includes Rolling Stone, Complex, GQ, XXL, and Pitchfork. J.I.D will close the Movin’ On 2023 festival with a performance that will create a lasting impact on attendees.

Movin’ On is an 18+ music festival that is free for all Penn State students. As one of the top five music festivals in the country, Movin’ On takes pride in providing students with a large variety of performers to celebrate the yearly send-off of Penn State’s graduating students. Entering its 48th year, Movin’ On continues to provide the festival free of charge for students to enjoy live music and entertainment. For more information, please visit www.movinon.org. Follow them on Twitter, Instagram, and Tiktok @psumovinon to stay up to date about all things Movin’ On.